

A DREAM

I have a dream
From heaven revealed
So true, so real
Though rarely believed
A vision sweet
Of gracious love
Descending free
From heaven above

I see your hands reach out to me
Gently wiping tears from my eyes
I hear your voice say I'm yours forever
Ever
Ever
Evermore

I have a dream
That never dies
Come true and clear
Before my eyes
A precious view
Of father and child
So near, so pure
You are, my God

I see your hands reach out to me
Gently wiping tears from my eyes
I hear your voice say I'm yours forever
Ever
Ever
Evermore

By your blood I am free
By your stripes I am healed
And I can walk for all my days in your light

In your arms I will rest

I have a dream
From heaven revealed
So true, so real
Though rarely believed
I have a dream
A sweet and wonderful dream
