

THE RIVER FLOWS

The river flows
The river flows down, down stream
The tree grows
The tree grows bright, bright green
The water clear
So crystal clear wounds will heal
To give life
Eternal life for you and me

My flesh is as grass of the field
Its loveliness is all fleeting now
I fade away, then fall asleep
As evening comes

Scorched up before I'm fully grown As breath of the Lord blows down on me
The grass withers
The flower fades, but I
I still dream
I dream

The river flows
Pure river flows down, down
stream
The tree grows
The tree of life grows bright, bright green
The fruit it bears
The fruit it bears each month all year
To give life
Eternal life for you and me

The wind of life has passed me by The flood of time has swept me away
I'm short of strength
I'm put to shame, but I
I still dream
I dream

The angel shows Pure river flowing from God's throne
The tree grows
The most living tree ever known
The leaves it yields
The leaves the whole world will heal
To give life
Eternal life for you and me

The river flows
